AFTERNOON
EDITIONWEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1897.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1898.WADSWORTH CLARKE HEADS CAMPAIGN FOR
EPISCOPAL FUND$302,172 Will Be Raised in Three Years in the Lexington Diocese of the Episcopal Church.

Wadsworth Clark has been appointed chairmen in the Maysville parish to aid the campaign to raise $302,172 in three years in the Lexington Diocese of the Episcopal Church. The canvass here is a part of the nationwide campaign to further the interests of the church. Mr. Clark will be glad to explain to any interested, the work that will be done, how the money is to be pledged, and give any further information concerning the work. It is believed that Maysville will be prominent in pledging its share in this great movement. The amount asked in each parish is comparatively small. The Maysville quota will be announced in a few days.

In 1913 the Lexington Diocese has received from the Board of Missions $6,000 and contributed to the board just $2,911.50. See what a difference there is in what has been given and what has been received? In 1920, the Lexington Diocese expects to receive from the Missions Board $95,618.64, and it is asked to contribute only $18,935. Plain figures show the Lexington Diocese receives more than it gives.

The funds raised in this campaign will go toward increasing the general work of the church all over the Diocese, for development of Margaret College for Girls at Versailles and St. John's Institute and Wentworth Farm at Corbin. It is hoped to place three new diocesan missionaries in the field and to build a community home for the Negro congregation of the St. Andrew's church, Lexington.

The work of the church is spreading, and its influence is daily growing in power. But we must have help, just as any other movement must. The record of the Episcopalian Institutions in this diocese have a record to be proud of anywhere, and the scope of its activity is unlimited.

ARRESTED FOR SHOOTING WITH INTENT TO KILL

Officer Fred Wells this afternoon arrested Lawson Haley, colored, on a warrant issued in Squire Fred W. Bauer's court charging him with shooting at another with intent to kill. Haley's appearance bond for appearance before Squire Bauer Saturday afternoon was fixed at $300. It is charged that Haley has been too familiar with the wife of Claude Barbour, a colored man who lives on East Third street and that a few nights ago Barbour found Haley at his home and an argument was started in which Haley fired a revolver at Barbour, but did not strike him.

Messrs. Billy Franklin and Henry Brickman have returned to their home in Cincinnati after spending Thanksgiving in this city the guests of Misses Arn of East Third street.

JACOBSEN, MASTER OF THE VIOLIN, PLEASES

Second Number of All-Star Musical Series at Washington Thanksgiving Evening Please Lovers of Good Music.

SPECIAL TRAIN WILL CARRY THIS COUNTY'S
FOLKS TO FRANKFORT

Special Train Chartered by Local Republicans to Take Delegation to Governor's Inauguration — Boys' Band to Lead the Great Parade.

There was a very appreciative audience at the Washington Theater Thursday evening to hear Sase Jacobsen, the musical marvel of the present day. Jacobsen, although a very young man, has leaped into fame as never night and has attracted the attention of the lovers of music drawing from some of the most competent critics the highest of praise.

Those in the audience Thursday evening who can appreciate extraordinary music were more than pleased with the concert and are loud in their praise of the artist. While the wondrous tones which came from his violin as he drew the bow across the strings rang upon the ears of his hearers as if they came from a master, Jacobsen played as an ordinary "fiddler" and his unassuming air on the platform endeared him to those who heard him and again emphasized the fact that a really great man is great in being his plain self.

Messrs. William and Gerald Murphy are to be congratulated upon bringing to Maysville such a high class series of concerts.

DR. LOCKE SAYS DRIVE IS GETTING GOOD START

Dr. J. S. Locke, Executive Secretary of the Kentucky Tuberculosis Association was in Maysville Thursday to spend Thanksgiving with his family here. Dr. Locke reports that the Christmas Seal Campaign is getting a good start and when the actual campaign opens on next Monday he is expecting thousands of the stamps to be purchased by Kentuckians. Dr. Locke is anxious that every county in Kentucky have the same sort of Health League organization that Mason county has at present.

WINDOW GLASS SPECTACLES NOT DANGEROUS

If you had your choice between giving up everything you have in this world and losing your eyesight, I am sure you would keep your eyes. Trouble is we never think of these things until we're brought face to face with them. Many people buy spectacles from peddlers that do more harm than window glass spectacles. If you value your eyes, consult only a reliable sight specialist. Come to

VERY SUDDENLY LAST NIGHT

One of Maysville's Leading Business Women Died Last Night Very Suddenly at Her Home in Aberdeen of Cerebral Hemorrhage.

GREAT REVIVAL IS NEEDED IN NATION,
LOCAL PASTOR SAYS

In Thanksgiving Service, Rev. Dickey Says the United States Needs a Great Wave of Religious Awakening Such as Shook the Country in 1800.

Miss Blanche Riedle, tor several years the very efficient office assistant for A. G. Sulser & Company, local insurance agents, died at her home in Aberdeen at about 9 o'clock Thursday evening after only a few hours illness.

Miss Riedle had for years been a sufferer from nervousness but on Thursday morning arose in her usual good health. She went to the Aberdeen Post Office for her mail and was sitting at her home looking over her mail when she was stricken with a severe pain over the eyes. She lapsed into unconsciousness and although her devoted brother-in-law, Dr. S. A. Laughlin, a very efficient physician, did all that could possibly be done to save her, she died without regaining consciousness.

Miss Riedle was an unusually efficient business woman and regarded by local business men as probably the best business woman in the city. She was a daughter of the late G. A. Riedle, who operated the large Aberdeen Tannery and besides her mother, she is survived by six sisters, Mrs. William Kelum, Mrs. George W. Barkley, Mrs. S. A. Laughlin, Misses Anna, Louise and Minnie Riedle.

The annual Thanksgiving service held Thursday morning at the First Baptist church was a very interesting one and the sermon by Rev. J. J. Dickey, pastor of the "Little Brick" church, greatly impressed the large audience.

The music of the service was one of the great features. A Sextette composed of Mrs. H. C. Barnes, Mrs. Percy Lee, Miss Amy King, Prof. W. J. Caplinger, Mr. W. A. Munzing and Mr. C. S. Kirk led the hymns of praise and sang a beautiful "Awakening Anthem." Miss Stella Archdeacon was at the organ. The annual offering was used to pay the expressage on clothing donated by Maysville people to the stricken Armenians and Syrians.

Pastor Dickey built his sermon around "Righteousness Exalteth A Nation" and it was a wonderful sermon he built. After recounting the blessings given our own United States by the Heavenly Father, the minister, military, or industrial supremacy military or industrial supremacy was measured what the Father measured a nation by but that Righteousness Exalteth A Nation.

The minister stated that the United States was getting along from God. He said the early altars were crumbling and that the children in the homes were not having their attention called to the Father of the Universe. An incisive theology emanating from our colleges and universities robbing Christ of his deity was also mentioned.

Rev. Dickey brought his masterful sermon to a climax when he said legislation or morality would not relieve the situation but that the nation needed a revival of Holy Ghost religion. He reminded his hearers of the revivals of 1740 and of 1800 and pled that the people of Maysville unite in prayer for a revival of the old time religion.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE TO ELECT ON TUESDAY

Plans are going forward rapidly for the opening of Victory Week among Baptists of the Southern Baptist Convention on next Sunday morning. Special service will be held at the local Baptist church and every member of the church and congregation is urged to be present at the morning service. Those who are not present at the morning service will be visited in their homes Sunday afternoon by one of the various campaign teams which will canvas the city and community.

GENERAL OBSERVATION OF THANKSGIVING DAY

It is doubtful if there has been a Thanksgiving day in recent years which has been more generally observed than that of this year. The majority of the local stores and shops were closed and folks spent the day at church, at the theater and in their homes. There were many Thanksgiving parties.

SATURDAY LAST DAY TO PAY COUNTY TAXES

Next Saturday is the last day for the payment of County Taxes as the penalty is applied under the law by the Sheriff on the first of December. It is expected that the Sheriff's office will be crowded all day on Saturday as is usually the case on the last day for payment.

GREAT DINNER SERVED

GOLDEN WEDDING
IS CELEBRATED AT "WESTVIEW"

Beautiful Country Home of Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Richardson is Same of Happy Family Reunion on Thanksgiving.

"Westview" is the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Richardson on Jersey Ridge was the scene of the happiest family reunions imaginable on Thanksgiving Day. It was the family celebration of the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Richardson which occurred a few days ago. All the children—five sons and their wives and all the grandchildren—nine in number, two brothers of Mrs. Richardson and a brother of Mr. Richardson—were present. It was the first time for many years that the whole family assembled on a like occasion at the old home and it goes without saying that the day was one of unabated happiness. A bountiful Thanksgiving dinner consisting of all the delicacies that the country and the markets could afford, and for which this home is noted, was served. It was a happy group that sat at the table with father and mother at either end of the table just as they have presided with such grace for over 40 years.

At the conclusion of dinner Mr. Richardson expressing his joy at having all the family present, presented each son, daughter-in-law and grandchild with a five dollar gold piece. A message of greeting, congratulations, and good wishes from Rev. J. J. Dickey, was read. Brother Dickey was pastor at Old Stone church forty-two years ago of which Mr. and Mrs. Richardson were members, and to which they took their children. In his letter Rev. Dickey referred to the pleasure days spent in the Richardson and Marlow homes in those days. The afternoon was spent in a genuine home-like fashion, and when the time for parting came each and everyone felt that truly it was the "End of a Perfect Day."

The names of those present are as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Burr Richardson and son, Bernard of Dayton, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Richardson, Jr., and daughter, Martha Margaret, of Ripley, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Reed Richardson and children, Leslie, Adah Reed, and Alberta of the county; Mr. and Mrs. John M. Richardson and sons, Thomas and John, and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Richardson, son and daughter-in-law Howell and Juanita of this city, and Messrs. Ben P. and C. Tripp Marsh of Charleston Bottom and Mr. Schuman of Ripley, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. William Groppenbacher and children of Huntington, W. Va., spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Ellis of East Second street.

DELIGHTED AT HUNTINGTON

Mr. William Groppenbacher and wife of Huntington, West Va., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Ellis Wednesday. They are delighted with their new home. Mr. Groppenbacher is connected with two looseleaf tobacco houses in Huntington. Huntington is certainly a growing city. He says the increase in population has been great recently, that every ten days an additional school room is required to house the children. The city recently issued $400,000 in bonds to enlarge the capacity of their school buildings.

COLORED ODD FELLOWS
PAY OFF THEIR DEBTS

The members of the Maysville Colored Lodge of Odd Fellows celebrated Thanksgiving Day right royally on Thanksgiving Day itself being the national day of thanks. They also marked the day of their wiping out of debt on their beautiful building in lower Sutton street. The last bond has been paid and was burned Thursday. They kept open house all day and had a most pleasant time.

BARBOUR-HAMRICK

Howard Hamrick of Springfield and Miss Adriah K. Barbour of Rectorville were married at 2:30 p. m. Thursday in the parlors of Mr. J. J. Wood in East End by Rev. J. J. Dickey officiating. The bride and bridegroom took a train for Cincinnati for a few days, returning they will reside at Springfield where Mr. Hamrick has a flourishing business.

W. H. WELLS DEAD

Mr. W. H. Wells died Thursday night at his home at Sardin following a long illness of a complication of diseases. He is survived by his wife, one son and one daughter. Funeral was held this afternoon with services by Rev. Hopkins and burial was made at Shannon.

Will the Influenza Return?

Public Health Authorities Predict Its Recurrence

Guard Against It by Building Up the Blood

Pepto-Mangan Creates Rich Red Blood and Increases Strength

Surgeon General Blue, of the United States Public Health Service, in a recent statement from Washington, warns the public that the much-dreaded influenza epidemic will probably return this fall and winter. All medical authorities agree that the weak, bloodless, run-down individual is more likely to contract this (as well as any other infectious disease) than the strong, robust, red-blooded man.

In view of these facts, it is wise to use every effort to build up the blood and thus increase the bodily resistance to the invasion of the germs of the disease. Gude's Pepto-Mangan fits an absolutely dependable red-blooded builder in all conditions of lowered vitality not due to serious disease of the vital organs. It improves the appetite, imparts color to the cheeks, and creates new hope and ambition in those who have become pale, weak, and listless. Physicians recommend Gude's Pepto-Mangan. When you order, be sure the word "Gude's" is on the package. Without "Gude's," it is not Pepto-Mangan. Furnished in both liquid and tablet form. For sale by all druggists.

IN THE DAY'S NEWS

Marcus H. Holcomb, who celebrates his seventy-fifth birthday anniversary today, has been Governor of Connecticut since 1915. In this office he has made a striking record as a compeller of State thrift and as a reducer of the costs of State administration. Hartford is his native city, and Southington is his present home. A lawyer by profession, he has both practiced law and sat on the bench of the probate court. In addition, service on the State Police Commission, high office in both houses of the legislature, a term as Attorney-General, dispensation of justice as a Superior Court judge, and practical experience in banking and industry.

HOW MRS. BOYD AVOIDED AN OPERATION

Canton, Ohio.—"I suffered from a female trouble which caused me much suffering, and two doctors decided that I would have to go through an operation before I could get well."

"My mother, who had been helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, advised me to try it before submitting to operation. She advised me to do my house work without any difficulty. I advise any woman who is afflicted with female troubles to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial and it will do as much for them,"—Mrs. MARIE BOYD, 1421 5th St. N. E., Canton, Ohio.

Sometimes there are serious conditions where a hospital operation is the only alternative, but on the other hand so many women have been cured by this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, after doctors have said that an operation was necessary—every woman who wants to avoid an operation should give it a fair trial before submitting to such a trying ordeal.

If complications exist, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for advice. The rest is of many years' experience is at your service.

Be a Modern Woman

The old-fashioned housekeeper never had time for anything outside of her own home.

Womankind today has a larger vision.

Instead of spending all their time in the hot kitchen, they occasionally vary the monotony of meals by having some of our delicious warm rolls. Always fresh at
